Meeting Opened 7:36

Previous meeting's minutes accepted without objection.

Website has been completely migrated to the new server.
We've gotten $1500 in registration so far

Discussion about moving the online meetings to a new service.

Zola has been working on designs for the hat workshop. She has been leaning more towards simplicity than accuracy. Having a beginner and an intermediate design suggested. Due to a sale we are ~$30 under budget on this workshop.

Bittergrim designates Heros as his proxy at 7:54pm

The raffle for a horseback riding is $2

Travis is the new Events Director

There is a reporter for a local news publication that wants to do an article on Wild Nights for This Land Press. The general consensus is ok, with some conditions.

Discussion about what to charge for small children. Perhaps $20, the park may charge us.

Discussion about con theme. Steam punk, clash of the gods, mystery, horror, and prehistoric all suggested. We are hoping to get Jan of Swords and Sausages as a GoH, and see what she is willing to do as an artist.

Discussion about panels.

BlackDawg has tools we can use in the leatherworking workshop.

Discussion about leather badge holders.

Wolf2Tail's designs are lacking a space for names or badges.

We need more staff.

Motion to reject the leather badge holders. No seconds.

Credit-card style badges were suggested.

Discussion tabled to the business forum.

Discussion about the kitchen. We could use more rags.

Discussion about having the GoH meal outdoors. There are a lot of logistical issues, but it's a possibility.

Another chilli cook-off suggested. Kitchen space is an issue. If people bring their own equipment it's doable.

The maypole needs a better time slot. Right after opening ceremonies is a good time.

Discussion about the Are you a Werewolf event, and location.

March 23rd suggested for event planning meeting.

Next meeting is April 6 at 7:30pm

Meeting Closed 10:05pm
